4.ADVANTAGES & DISADVANTAGES:

Advantages:

- ❖ The most transparent advantages are Time, Cost, and Convenience.
- ❖ Lok Sabha speak about problems of People.
- ❖ Election code of conduct prohibits the central government in declaring welfare schemes for the public.
- ❖ Simultaneous Elections will give ample scope and clarity of thought for the people to whom vote for.
- ❖ Election rigging or EVM malfunctioning can't be done in a magnitude of this size.
- ❖ People are free for next five years.
- ❖ In a country like India all round the year one way or other election will happen always. Security forces and government machinery can be utilized for other productive purposes.

Disadvantages:

- ❖ Of course many states will have to compromise on its lifetime of 5 years.
- ❖ Country like India have federal setup by these simultaneous elections may lead to a two party system.
- ❖ Members of the Lok Sabha often vote along party lines due to the strong influence of political parties and the Whip System.
- ❖ This can lead to reduced independent thinking and decision-making, as members might prioritize party interests over the interests of their constituents.
- ❖ People don't have a chance to punish a government.

5.APPLICATIONS:

The ecosystem of new apps in ECI especially mobile apps have played a major role in elections. The mobile apps provides better personalization, ease of sending notifications, mobile-specific features such as camera to capture, contact list access, Geographic Navigation System, phone calls, accelerometer, compass and the ability to work offline thereby making it more user friendly for voters and Election Officials.

6.CONCLUSION:

The Suite of application developed in the recent times provides interoperability between the several departments of ECI thereby providing the improvement in management and sharing of data. The ICT platform of ECI improves business processes for all electoral staff as well as enhances transparency of election management flow. The integration of software allows ECI to develop IT facilities easily and respond timely to the growing expectations of the elections and electors.

7.FUTURE SCOPE:

The ICT applications have enabled ECI by making communication easier, reducing the time and effort, better functionality, improved control that has led to an increase in the efficiency of the Conduct of Elections.
